Remarks

1. Participants will get to choose whether to try on a ninja costume or samurai armor. However, due to the limited number of available outfits, your choice may not always be possible if already reserved.
2. Samurai armor was made for the Japanese physique and, therefore, may not fit guests who have much larger physiques. With some exceptions, the armor will generally not fit those who are less than 145 cm or over 180 cm in height or with a waist measurement of greater than 100 cm.
3. Children under the age of six cannot participate in this tour.
4. Please bring a pair of socks, a towel, and drinking water.
5. The tour group will travel by public transportation. Please dress casually and wear shoes comfortable for walking.
6. The location may be changed from Ninja Yashiki to another location.
7. Hamamatsucho Station may be used after Zojoji Temple.

Comments from Tour Guide

Ninja are silent masters of traditional martial arts that have been handed down from ancient times. Meeting one of them is an opportunity to glimpse a sublime way of life realized only through austere training to discipline and conquer oneself.
